

2023 Rules of Entry Terms and Conditions

Important Information

- Size limits 2D work. Outer dimensions must not be more than nine sq ft/ or 8361 sq cm, including the frame.
- Size limits 3D work. Free standing work must be capable of being handled by one person. Dimensions may not exceed 1.5 cubic ft/ or 0.04 cubic meter and max 10 lbs/ or 4.5 kilos.
- All works must be gallery ready with wire and eye hooks (no saw tooth hangers permitted) and all 2D work must have finished edges. Photographic images will not be accepted in the creation of digital work.

Works must meet the criteria above to be accepted.

Conditions

- All works received will be juried.
- Juror decisions are final.
- Entry fees are non-refundable.
- Accepted works will be delivered on Friday, March 31 between 11 & 2 pm and Saturday, April 1 between 11 and 2 pm, or by special appointment. Accepted works must remain on view and not be removed from the show until its conclusion on May 27, 2023.
- The BMFA receives 35% commission on sold works.
- Artists are responsible for insuring their own work. All reasonable care will be taken, but Blue Mountain Foundation for the Arts assumes no responsibility should damage or loss occur.

Note: By completing the Entry Form it is understood that you accept and will abide by the BMFA Juried Art Show Rules of Entry.